January 2010 P.S.

Hi Everyone,

Must apologise for a blonde moment so early in the year!

I had forgotten to include a training invite!

From Bob Wright-

Well it's that time of the year again; the MSA / MSTT supported Rally Marshal Training day at York will take place on Sunday 31st January 2010.

The training will take place at Askham Bryan College, York, as it has done for the last few years and this year, as we did in 2008, we will be running practical fire training for all attendees.

If you haven't already done so you can register to attend here:

<http://volunteersinmotorsport.co.uk/tinc?key=nXOK3jBh&formname=york> and we will send you joining details by return.

To fit in with the current grading scheme for rally marshals we have slightly renamed the various courses on offer, but the content will still be relevant to the roles you undertake on events. So please choose the session you wish to attend from the drop down list.

Look forward to seeing you there

Bob Wright, Lead Trainer

And, have made a small error in calculating the overall and class autotest results. Instead of calculating best 5 out of 9 as per the autotest regs, I worked it out on dropping 2 rounds. (Oops.) Sincere apologies, and the correct results appear on the next page.

Thanks,

Lindsay
